C #15
Subject: RESOLUTION COMMITTEE
Submitted by: Kathleen M. Martins
Category: Constitutional Amendment

Whereas the Resolution Committee is responsible to track the status of all resolutions passed at Convention.
Whereas the Council is the highest legislative body of this Association except when the Convention is in session.
Therefore, be it resolved that Article VIII Section 6 (c) will include language requiring reporting on the status of resolutions passed at Convention to the Council quarterly as follows:

Article VIII---CONVENTIONS

Section 6. RESOLUTIONS

(c) The Resolutions Committee shall be responsible to track the status of all resolutions passed at a Convention and provide written reporting to the membership, including who is responsible for acting on the resolutions, what actions have been taken to date, and what the results of those actions have been, at all quarterly council meetings and at the next Convention, until said resolutions are resolved.
