First Responders Week

Celebrating EMS WEEK

Each year during the third full week in May, the country recognizes National Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Week and honors all the first responders and medical professionals who dedicate their lives to saving ours.

Across the nation, communities and medical professionals will honor the contributions of EMS practitioners. From rural communities with little to no local health care services to major cities teeming with humanity, dedicated first responders provide immediate care during a health crisis.

Whether there is an accident or an illness, these trained professionals work around the clock to quickly ensure care is available. Keeping up with the latest training ensures they know the most effective life-saving emergency treatments. EMS practitioners are professionals of the highest caliber.

This year (EMS) Week is especially poignant as providers around the country remain on the COVID-19 front lines, fighting a pandemic that has claimed almost 1 million American lives and is still going.

The week is an opportunity for us to recognize these home-grown heroes, so in recognition of all your efforts we say - THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE!
Police Week

Honoring Law Enforcement

National Police Week offers honor, remembrance, and peer support, while allowing law enforcement, survivors, and citizens to gather and pay homage to those who gave their lives in the line of duty.

HISTORY

In 1962, President John F. Kennedy signed a proclamation which designated May 15 as Peace Officers Memorial Day and the week in which that date falls as Police Week. Currently, tens of thousands of law enforcement officers from around the world converge on Washington, DC to participate in a number of planned events which honor those that have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

The Memorial Service began in 1982 as a gathering in Senate Park of approximately 120 survivors and supporters of law enforcement. Decades later, the event, more commonly known as National Police Week, has grown to a series of events which attracts thousands of survivors and law enforcement officers to our Nation's Capital each year.

The National Peace Officers Memorial Service, which is sponsored by the Grand Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police, is one in a series of events which includes the Candlelight Vigil, which is sponsored by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund (NLEOMF) and seminars sponsored by Concerns of Police Survivors (C.O.P.S.)

National Police Week draws in between 25,000 to 40,000 attendees. The attendees come from departments throughout the United States as well as from agencies throughout the world. This provides a unique opportunity to meet others who work in law enforcement.

Thank You!
Supreme Court Update

On May 12, 2022, the Supreme Court of New Hampshire issued a ruling regarding whether the legislature's vote on a fact finder's report was binding or merely advisory and determined that said vote was advisory only. This decision came from an action brought by the SEA and the New Hampshire Troopers Association, where the legislature voted in favor of a fact finder's report that the governor had rejected. Both unions supported the fact finder's report and believed that because the legislature voted in support of the report during the impasse proceedings, the mutual agreement by both the unions and the legislature constituted a binding agreement.

Unfortunately, the Court disagreed with the union's arguments, essentially arguing that the legislature lacked authority to collectively bargain on behalf of the state and that the ability to collectively bargain instead rests with the governor.

While we would have liked for the legislature's vote to be binding to lend more oversight and finality to the bargaining/impasse process, we are happy to have at least fought for our members and at least gained more clarity into the meaning of the impasse process. This knowledge will better inform our strategy as we move forward in bargaining and advocating for our members.

It’s no secret that criminal justice reform is sweeping the nation. From state legislatures to the halls of Congress, legislation is being introduced every day with an eye on decreasing the U.S. prison population and exploring new and different ways of preparing incarcerated individuals for life on the outside.

Last week Dave Honeman, David Honeman, SEA Organizer and Retired NHDOC Lieutenant, along with NHSP-M Captain Gary Burke and SEIU Senior Legislative Assistant, John Foti, traveled to Washington, D.C. as guests of the IU’s One Voice group to attend the National Corrections Medal of Honor week of events. While they were there, they also had a personal one-on-one with Congressman Chris Pappas to talk about the issues facing those working in the NH Department of Corrections and were in attendance for the Law Enforcement Memorial Vigil - paying tribute to the 619 officers who lost their lives this past year.

“One Voice” is a nationwide campaign to bring the voices of corrections officers to the forefront of discussion so they can be vocal partners as legislative changes being implemented will help transform corrections facilities across the country.

One Voice is made up of the leading labor unions, corrections staff, criminal justice reform leaders, academics, and policymakers with the goal of building bridges and advancing a unified approach to better inform the policies, programs, and narratives that define criminal justice reform.

By collectively bringing these groups together, One Voice hopes to shift the conversation from debating the tensions between incarcerated individuals and corrections staff to one that is centered on protecting the safety and interests of all who are impacted by the corrections system.

As stakeholders in these changes, we have a vested interest in seeing the best possible outcome and must fight to include our position, regardless of political agendas or party affiliation.
This is the story of HB 1535. The story has twists and turns, and it’s not over yet, but we wanted to share everything with you and get it down in writing. Thank you in advance for staying the course.

Last week, the NH Senate ended up voting "Ought To Pass (OTP)" on HB 1535-FN (Originally a COLA [Cost of Living Adjustment] Bill) by a roll call vote of 17-7! That means 7 Republican Senators and 10 Democratic Senators voted together to spend close to $12 million dollars to support retirees and beneficiaries, including many people who live on a very fixed income and are hurt perhaps the most by inflation.

At the start of the day, it did not look like the bill would pass. Four Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee had voted for it to be found "Inexpedient to Legislate." When that came to the entire Senate floor, that motion failed 9-15. The Republicans who joined the Democratic Caucus included: Senators Riccardi, Avard, Carson, Birdsell, and Gannon. We cannot thank them enough and in good faith hope to work together on more legislation that helps working people in the future.

Across the board, there was tremendous leadership shown by Senators Soucy, Carson, Cavanaugh, and D’Allesandro who made passionate and heartfelt speeches in favor of the bill. Senator Soucy also gets a #SoucySolidarity moment for making the motion of OTP, and also noteworthy that Senators Bradley, and Morse joined the yays to make the final vote 17-7.

At work, we activated our retirees and members to reach out to their Senators and a special congratulations go out to them for having their voices heard.

The bill passed as a one-time payment of $500 for retirees or beneficiaries whose annual retirement allowance on June 30, 2022, is not greater than $30,000 and who have been retired for at least 60 months prior to July 1, 2022.

Next, we move to the Governor’s desk and the bill awaits the signature of Governor Chris Sununu.

He has signed into law a similar one-time stipend bill before, and we all hope he’s still understanding of the need this year.

Clearly, we still have a long way to go until we realize a bona fide COLA for all NH Retirees, but we are making serious bipartisan progress and building bridges that will accomplish epic things.

Senator Soucy and President Gulla will have a candid conversation about small business-friendly policies, passing fiscally responsible state budgets, working to ensure public safety, expanding economic opportunity and quality, and good-paying jobs. This includes supporting workforce training and focusing on policies that help New Hampshire recruit and retain workers.

Join us on Monday, May 23 from 5 - 6 PM, or listen to the rebroadcast on Tuesday, May 24 at 8 AM!

BOOK CLUB

The next book club meeting will be on June 6 from 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM, the first Monday of the month. The next read is Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick. If you are interested in joining the book club and wish to be sent the link to join or added to our email list, please email Andrew Moore at amoore@seiui984.org.

From the author of Mayflower, Valiant Ambition, and In the Hurricane’s Eye--the riveting bestseller tells the story of the true events that inspired Melville's Moby-Dick.

Winner of the National Book Award, Nathaniel Philbrick’s book is a fantastic saga of survival and adventure, steeped in the lore of whaling, with deep resonance in American literature and history.

In 1820, the whaleship Essex was rammed and sunk by an angry sperm whale, leaving the desperate crew to drift for more than ninety days in three tiny boats. Nathaniel Philbrick uses little-known documents and vivid details about the Nantucket whaling tradition to reveal the chilling facts of this infamous maritime disaster. In the Heart of the Sea, recently adapted into a major feature film starring Chris Hemsworth, is a book for the ages.
''Steppin' Up'' Walk for Violence Prevention

Laura Hanson, President of Chapter 62 at River Valley Community College, and her team recently donated $150 to this great community effort in Claremont to help end domestic violence. The event is organized by Turning Points Network, a private, non-profit agency offering crisis and support services to female and male survivors of domestic violence, sexual violence, and stalking.

All direct services are free and confidential. In addition, TPN works with survivors, friends, loved ones, service providers, and concerned community members.

The annual Steppin' Up to End Violence walk was held on April 30th and was the 15th year they have held the 5K.

The funds raised by stepping up:
- support programs and services for survivors of domestic violence, sexual violence, sex trafficking, sexual harassment, and stalking.
- Provide violence prevention education programs in local schools.
- Assure survivors receive services at no cost to them.
- Provide safety, hope, and healing & save lives.

Excellent work, Chapter 62!
Health Coach Highlights

Take Care of Yourself: May is Mental Health Awareness Month

We've all been through a lot this year. And one issue that continues to make headlines? Our mental health. Specifically, the effect of COVID-19 and all that comes with it – vaccinations, quarantining, working from home, disrupted schedules, lack of social interaction, and more.

Tomorrow, May 19th, is National Mental Health Day of Action, and it is an excellent time to pause and reflect on something that is so very critical to our lives, and the truth is this:

> According to the National Institute of Mental Health, nearly one in five Americans live with a mental health condition.

That includes any mental, behavioral, or emotional disorder such as:

- Depression
- Anxiety
- Mood disorders, including bipolar disorder
- Personality disorders
- Psychotic disorders, including schizophrenia
- Trauma
- Eating disorders
- Substance-use disorders

A recent statement by President Joe Biden on Mental Health Awareness Month mentions isolation, sickness, grief, and job loss as contributing factors to declining mental health and lack of access to mental health services during difficult times.

But it’s important to remember that you are not alone. That is the theme of this year’s awareness month from the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). Experts stress that now is the time to focus on healing, reaching out, and connecting in safe ways by acknowledging that it's okay not to be okay.

As a reminder, all state employees have access to a free and confidential work & life resource called the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). They provide short-term counseling, consultation, referrals to resources, and seminars for those in need. It’s time to take care of yourself and this month serves as a reminder that you are NOT alone.

If you need assistance, you can visit:

MAKE THE UNION SUCCEED OR FAIL

A union’s true strength does not come from its officers or its treasury. It springs from the loyalty and devotion of individual members. Good officers and a sound financial structure are essential, it is true, but, in the long run, YOU determine the success or failure of your union. So, attend local meetings, help make your union stronger and it will serve you even more effectively.

Hello SEIU 1984 members,

In April, the Federal government announced the extension of the CARES Act forbearance until August 31st, 2022. This extension continues the pause on your Federal student loan payments and interest.

Alongside this extension is the Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) waiver, which relaxes the criteria needed to receive forgiveness through the PSLF program until October 31st, 2022. This waiver aims to impact nearly 500,000 Americans to ensure that borrowers who have made previously ineligible qualifying payments may, at this time, count those payments towards PSLF.

While this is all good news, it is temporary.

This is an opportune time to discover all the options available to you. We believe borrowers who devote a decade of their lives to public service should be able to rely on PSLF and other federal forgiveness programs. Make sure you find out how we can assist you with this time-sensitive matter, and schedule a complimentary consultation with one of our highly trained counselors by clicking the button below.
